in any opera.

Hon. Stillwell H. Russell, of Dallas, Texas, was in the city Friday, and during his short stay here he established a law office and formed a co-partnership with Edgar Wilhelm, of this city, who now has charge of the office over the City Drug store. Mr. Russell is well known as one of the leading criminal lawyers in the South, and his addition to the Ardmore bar is a welcome one and makes this one of the strongest bars in the southwest. He used his usual good judgment in selecting Mr. Wilhelm as his office lawyer. He is extensively acquainted throughout the country. Mr. Russell intends to spend the greater part of his time at his Ardmore office.

Saturday Morning's Fire.

A few minutes before 2 o'clock Saturday morning a locomotive in the yards sounded a fire alarm.
The alarm quickly spread being followed with other whistles, the fire bell and the persuasive arouser the pistol. The blaze was located near Hargrove and proved to be the three room cottage belonging to Postmaster Moran Scott, occupied by Will Hill. Its destruction was complete with all the contents. Mr. Hill effects were fully covered by insurance. Mr. Scott had $200 insurance on the building, which was recently built at a cost of $450. The origin of the fire is ascribed to a defective flue.

During the fire which destroyed Moran Scott's building, near Hargrove Saturday morning, the adjoining residence of Mr. Ball was several times in imminent danger.
Mr. Ball is thankful to those who worked so faithful in protecting his home on this occasion.

of the Commercial club is Monday
